	CLASSIFICATION STOPPED
JUNTRY_
PIC	14 mm Information from Norw mile
4
VALUATION	PLACE_OBTAINED25X1A
a Ate of Co	DITENT
ATE OBTÁI
EFERENCE	The state of the s
	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
EMARKS
Property Control of the Control of t
X1X
NUDOC.
OURCE
1. 1.	Two columns of 75 soldiers each left the Fridericus Kaserne on Altruppiner Chaussee, Keuruppin (N 53/Z h9) on 23 December 1950. The soldiers were
 5X1C	red-bordered black epaulots and carried carbines. Totor vehicles at the 57(10
2,	Ohn Dudadada Maran Varana aya iki ah ah a
- 0	- 1710 Priggrico Prens Asserne on Repriociznem Stradeo commo to be ecomed to capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. *
	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Cn 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of
25.740	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls school) on
25X1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the
25X1C X	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls* school) on capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustaedter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity
. 3.	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls school) on Loustaedter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter
X	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustaedter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the
X 2 3.	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Houstacdter Strause. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulon 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulon 2 January 1951.
3. 5X1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls school) on Houstacdter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied boyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulone to capacity by about 1,200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia. Two
5X1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls school) on Houstacdter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Notor Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied boyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulon 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulon 24 December, the See maserne was still occupied to capacity by about 1,200
3. 5X1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls school) on Loustaodter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of h5 unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets works red-bordered black epaulets, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six J5 tanks and the See Kaserne on 27 December
3. X1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * On 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Houstacdter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor On 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and tabout 2:30 p.m., 12 groups of 15 soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The S were red-bordered black epaulets and
3. (1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * On 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Houstandter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor On 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of hS unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the See Kaserne on 27 December At about 2:30 p.m., 12 groups of 15 soldiers left the installation and marched toward altruppin. The Sewer red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and HOOS with the troops were
3. 5X1C li.	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * On 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 45 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Houstacdter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor On 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets via the tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and tabout 2:30 p.m., 12 groups of 15 soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The Swore red-bordered black epaulets and
25X1C li	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Check 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustaceter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter Check 25 December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of 15 unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the Gee Kaserne on 27 December At about 2:30 p.m., 12 groups of 15 soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The St were red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and 1800s with the troops were
3. 25X1C	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five column each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Check 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustaceter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter Check 25 December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of 15 unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the Gee Kaserne on 27 December At about 2:30 p.m., 12 groups of 15 soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The St were red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and 1800s with the troops were
25X1C l	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five colums each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustacdter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied boyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of he unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets working red-bordered black opaulets, mostly with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wering red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the 30e Kaserne on 27 December At about 2:30 p.m., 12 groups of 15 soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The Swore red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and MOOs with the troops were tank insignia on their epaulets. Six JS tanks left the Spe Kaserne toward
5X1C l	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns each of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustacetter Strause. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets work of about 50 unarmed soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the 3c Hase and soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The soldiers left the installation and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and Hoos with the troops were tank insignia on their epaulets. Six JS tanks left the Gae Kaserne toward.
3. X1C l	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columes and led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns cach of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustaceter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor Ch 21 December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, the seasons were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the 30 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the Geometric triples and gas masks. The officers and NOOs with the troops were tank insignia on their epaulets. Six JS tanks left the See Kaserne toward CLASSIFICATION Six AT The officers and NOOs with the troops were tank insignia on their epaulets. Six JS tanks left the See Kaserne toward
3. 3. 10.	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five columns each led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns cach of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustacetter Strause. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets. Noter Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of ho unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Two units, each of about 50 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Just tanks and the gas and the soldiers left the installation and marched toward Altruppin. The were red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and 1800 with the troops were tank insignia on their epaulets. Six JS tanks left the Spe Kaserne toward. CLASSIFICATION SECTION December 180.
3. 5X1C l	capacity on 23 December. All windows were lighted at nightfall. Five colume cach led by two officers and numbering 75 to 90 soldiers, were observed entering the installation. * Ch 29 December, 12 columns cach of about 30 soldiers, five columns each of about 15 soldiers and four groups each of five to eight officers, left the Friedrich Franz Kaserne for the former Fontane Schule (girls' school) on Loustacdter Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black opaulets. Notor Ch 2h December, the Fridericus Kaserne was occupied beyond normal capacity by about 5,000 troops. Four columns, each of his unarmed soldiers, left the installation on 2 January 1951. The soldiers were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen leaving the installation. Six JS tanks and the Speciasing of 15 soldiers left the installation and carried rifles and gas masks. The officers and MOS with the troops were tank insignia on their epaulets. Six JS tanks left the Speckaserne toward CLASSIFICATION SIGNAT Document No. No Change In Class. Document No. No Change In Class. Declassified

SHORET

2

25X1A

5. A low wooden building at Scholtenplatz housed a guard detail of about 30 EM who were red-bordered black epaulets. Since trucks were unable to pass through the small doors of the four garages there, source thought that heavy mortars were stored there. It could not be determined whether the five earth shelters on Trenkmannstrasse contained fuel or ammunition. Unlike the shelters on Scholtenstrasse, they had no fire extinguishers or ventilation shafts. Noter vehicles observed at Scholtenplatz were numbered been set up at the intersection of Scholtenstrasse and Feldmannstrasso, it was difficult to determine whether the vehicles came from Scholten-platz or from the south gate of the See Kaserne.

25X1C

25X1C

6. The Friedrich Franz Kaserne was occupied on h January by about 1,800 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia. About 30 EM were engaged in aiming practice with four 122-mm guns and about 60 EM did gun drill with eight guns of 100 or 120 mm caliber in the barracks yard.

The Friedrich Franz Kaserne was occupied on h January by about 1,800 troops were engaged.

About 30 EM were engaged in aiming practice with four 122-mm guns and about 60 EM did gun drill with eight guns of 100 or 120 mm caliber in the barracks yard.

The Friedrich Franz Kaserne was occupied on h January by about 1,800 troops were seen leaving about 1,800 troops were engaged in aiming practice with four 122-mm guns and about 60 EM did gun drill with eight guns of 100 or 120 mm caliber in the barracks yard.

25X1C

7. Five AA guns were newly observed to be emplaced about 300 meters west of the telegraph construction office near the Friedrich Franz Kaserne. The guns were covered with canvas and had barrels about 2 meters long. They were guarded by two sentries who were red-bordered black epaulets.

was standing between the AA gun emplacements and the barracks installation. It had its rod antenna extended and was connected with the installation by a double telephone line.

25X1C

8. At about 3:30 p.m. on 4 January, six columns each of 36 soldiers were observed entering the Fontene Schule (girls' school) on Neustacker Strasse. The soldiers were red-bordered black spaulets and were unarmed. Trucks

25X1C

9. At about 9:30 a.m., on 2 January, opaulets, was seen at the drill field about 1 km northeast of the Storbeck church.

25X1C

25X1C

September 1

